

Products' Detail

The J-hooks for the T-3 Power Rack makes changing exercises or adding weights quicker and easier!

These J-hooks are heavy duty and fit securely in place, so you can focus on your workout without having to worry about the possibility of hook slippage or movement.

The J-hooks have a shortened front design so you can lift the bar off of the rack without losing your setup position. This shortened design makes it easier to unrack and rack the bar, while still allowing the bar to stay safely in place while on the rack.

Strong, durable, and made of powder-coated steel, these J-hooks are ideal for bench pressing or other lifts.

Features:

- Fits Power Rack and some and others with 2"x3" corner tubes
- Insides are lined with UHMW plastic to prevent damage to bars
- Shortened design to allow for easier unranking/racking of bars
- Maintain your starting position more easily with this design
